Toby and Jackie!
Thanks for the gorgeous pictures Jackie and for taking such good care of Toby!

Little Mia is sold to Rose from Barrie. Little Mia settled at home with Rose. Rose is doing a fabulous job with her training! Thanks so much for the gorgeous picture! We took these pictures today and thought you would like to see them. Gord got on the scale with her and she seems to be about 2.4 now. She slept 8 hours again last night. She isn't afraid of anything. She seems to like getting her face washed, is starting to get used to the hair dryer (just gentle on her rear at this point); tolerates brushing... is getting used to our comings and goings and the noise of the traffic in front of our condo when we sit on the balcony. If she feels afraid she seems to look at us and if we aren't bothered she relaxes. Thanks again for our lovely friend.

God Bless Rose

She seems to enjoy the car. We went to Brampton to see our new great grand daughter and she was excellent. We got a new crate (cage - like the pen only a small cage but she can see around) and we put it in the middle of the back seat and she was fine. I put a pad on the passenger's floor and she went pee & poo. I have a ferret halter for her so she can't jump and get into trouble. She ate from Gord's hand and she drank water. Just one of the crew. Our grand daughter's husband doesn't like dogs so when we visited we put that crate just inside the door and she didn't say boo (she could hear us upstairs) and when I went to the washroom I took a pad and she did her job again.

Really she was no trouble.

Gord will through her toy and she will bring it back.

I put her in the other crate on the counter when I am busy in the kitchen or on a table when I work at the computer and as long as she is near she is no trouble.

She accepts the fact that we go in and out (doesn't like it but accepts it) and we don't go directly to her when we come back.

We talk to her to let her know we are back and recognize her but we put groceries away etc and then go to her.

Someone asked if she was a lot of work and really she hasn't been because as long as she knows what is expected she seems great. Very smart.

She is sleeping on Gord's knee now - a good excuse for not doing the work I would like him to do - Ha! ha!

God Bless Rose

Rose sent some pictures of Little Miss Mia all grown up!

What a beautiful Maltese Mia has become! Thank you Rose.

What do you think? We think Mia is pretty special. She heels, sits before the elevator comes, stays until I say it is okay because people may be coming off, follows me on, etc.

I took her to visit an unwell senior the other day and she was extremely gentle and just lay on her knee.

She can run like the wind when she wants to.

I gave Denise my small crate yesterday for the puppy I know she will get one day. She adores Mia.

Gord calls her his #2 girl. He loves her.

Have a Happy New Year.

God Bless Rose

Thank-you Kymberley for the pictures and note to let us know how Teddy is doing!

Just wanted to send along a little hello from Teddy. He has grown into quite a cutie, he's full of life and so very playful. He's up to date with immunization, neutered, and just had his first day at the spa :) Teddy remains his name, my daughter thought it quite fitting for such a cute teddy bear. He is so smart...he goes out for pees and poohs on command, sits, shakes a paw, gives high five, lays down, rolls over, stays, and leaves it. We are enjoying him very much, and thank you again for allowing us the opportunity of having him. Best regards, Kymberley

These 2 pictures are of Teddy full grown, the pictures are from his new mom, much thanks to kymberley and her children so we can see how happy Teddy is in his new home! We only breed healthy, beautiful adults with sweet temperaments so you will have healthy, beautiful puppies with sweet temperaments.
